Australia to the University for Graduate School this month.

David Douglas Talbot - in Norfolk Va. at the Old Dominion University.

My sister, Dorothy Anne Lombert lived with my parents and then my mom on Thomas Street. She sold it this last year and moved to 2827 Bel Aire Arlington Heights Ill 60004.

She is a darling person but works with the public all day and has, what used to be referred to, as "an attitude".
Her privacy is important to her and so, I asked her all that she remembered but being the baby - that was not much.

My sister Brother - Lester John Lombert had married Judith English from Chicago - but both live in Denver - 4278 S. Alton, Englewood, Colo 80110. He's a talker - worse than I am. They have 3 boys -

Lester Jr - works in the PHD dept @ Notre Dame, Ind;

Indiana

Brian and John - both in school in Denver.

Back to my sister - The phone book listed Lester Lombert although my father has been dead for years. Probably why he was thought to have 'lived' on Thomas.

STAR FOOD PROCESSING, INC.

Now - on the Xeroxed Census form - It says place of Birth of Father of this person and written in for both John + Annie is what looks like "Ire English"

- What?

And John was born in "Free English" + Annie, too.

What does this mean, do you know?

We were told they were both born in Ireland - I believe my sister said it was in some other cities altogether than you have listed - my sister would know as they went to Ireland together + visited the area. None of us knew much about the Cassins growing up. John Graham was clear of mind and lived into his late 80's or early 90's - but I was only 10 or so and though much loved by him and enjoyed each other, we never talked about family.

We were told Uncle Bud - Cassin Francis Graham was the last of the Cassins - hence they gave him his name.

We were about 45 years old - 35 ish for my sister when we found out my mother was adopted. She realized that in contemporary times - it was passe' to be ashamed but had been made to feel so as a young girl. There was a cousin

4. "Bess" who lived in Dixon, Ill. These relatives were all Shabons. Uncle Pat, Mike - Aunt Winifred & Marrie all lived in a home on the River & had cousins - Marguerite ~~Reynolds~~ Moore being the most often seen. These people were all old enough to be my mom's mother or grandparents. Anyhow - Bess & some unnamed others told her she wasn't a big city or "mixed" ^{person} & she was adopted - inferring an illegitimacy. I think she never told her parents. She told us all this and that she remembered going to train & Uncle Bud coming home as an infant when she was about 3.

There are some pictures of Shabons that my sister has - people we are not even sure as to names. Would you like them? - The only reason they've been kept is that one does.

My grandfather had a firm at Cicero Ave & Madison Street in Chicago. He built a rather large apartment building there and the name Graham is still on the front up there. There are 2 stores & at least 6 apartments - terrible neighborhood now.

My mother says there were filled all through the depression & nobody had money for rent. My grandfather had a job at the Gas Co. and let them ride. When the depression was over - jobs came and they all left. No back rent was offered. Mom said some were relatives and I vaguely remember an Aunt Fanny for sure. Possibly this was another reason that the family drifted apart.

5)

There was a Cousin Nellie. She was married to a man named Connie. I remember him for having a girl's name and terrible bad breath. They lived in an apt on the South Side & were about 60-70 when mom was about 40. They had a child - a girl I think - I never met her, if I'm even correct.

When my mom first told me she was adopted, I said - unthinkingly "gosh, you may not even be Irish!" I spent the rest of her life trying to smooth that one over - she loved being Irish. I told her that when she was adopted - Irish Catholics got Irish Catholic orphans - that was basic. It was very important to her.

One more rambling rumor. As a child, our family visited constantly with my "Cousins" - but then, one called all mom's friends "Aunt" - so I offer this with a grain of salt. The 6.) family I am referring to were William RINN - married to, probably Dorothy - whom we called Aunt Dottie. If they - through Aunt Dottie's side - weren't real relatives on Mom's side - I'd be surprised because I remember them talking about their childhood - Aunt Kitsy - Cousin Nellie, the whole side of the family. Could have been just neighbors. Anyhow - They moved to Crystal Lake, Ill after WWII "to get away from the Chicago area in case of nuclear attack". They had 2 kids - Catherine and William. I think the parents are both dead but am in no way sure. What I'm saying is - They would possibly have Cassin information. The only information I found on them was in Mom's old address book - which says "Bill Rinn - 815-459-4264" and then a ? question mark.

There was also a Charles + Rose Anne Anderson - he was the son of Kitsy Anderson. These are shirt tail relatives - they lived in Oak Park, Illinois for years. I may find an address for them, I think. ^(got it) My sister says Kitsy was a cousin, Charles is her son. Last address 314 Lathrop, River Forest 60304 (c) 771-6549.

I will send on copies of what you gave me to Leo and D.C. and see what they say - if anything more. Meanwhile, thank you so very much to include us. It was very generous and I

I believe the it is the International Order of Odd Fellows, or Odd Fellows for short. I know they sold insurance and had some of their own cemeterys. A historical society in Penn. recently had a display of Odd Fellow goodies. They did wear costumes for something or other. Some of them quite beautiful - some quite odd. I'm sure they used these for some kind of ritual. Lots and lots of props. This display used an entire room and several dummys with the costumes on them. Floor to ceiling shelves PACKED with odds and end props (crowns, books and just about anything you can think of.

Unfortunately, I didn't have very much time to check this stuff out, and next time I went there the display had been changed to something else.

Who knows what they did with all this stuff. I guess only former members know, but I bet no one will tell. Sue

Believe it or not, it is the International Order of the Bells that follows for about 1 hour each week. I have heard announcements and had some of their own meetings. A historical meeting is held. Recently had a display of the various goods. They and some members for socializing. Some of them were from the 1st - some from the 2nd. I'm sure they used them for some kind of ritual. Lots and lots of people. This display used to enter from and several houses with the members on display. Then in calling members with each and the people behind: books and just about anything you can think of.

Unfortunately, I don't have very much time to share this with you. And next time I want to see the library and have measured to something else.
The house next door did with all this stuff. I know only what members know, but I bet you will tell me.

	Hearing of July 29, 1879. Remarks on cond. of various trades Shoemakers
	In this trade, among many other, work, convict labor is the most injurious. There are five boot & shoe mfg. firms in Chicago that have ceased to employ any but convict labor, thus forcing 250 men to seek work elsewhere, or beg, borrow, or steal the means of life. Failing to find employment, these honest mechanics must become paupers or criminals, and eventually be employed either by their former masters or other employers of convict labor. The present labor system suits our employers very well, as it gives them the advantage of getting good mechanics cheap, and if we (so-called) free mechanics complain about low wages, we receive the following

ASHLAND AVE. (1857)

p.73 The second execution, after seventeen years, was staged at the corner of Jackson & Ashland Blvds. The new location was for the greater convenience of the public, which was permitted to attend in the absence of more delicate forms of amusement.

By 1865 the atmosphere of the growing city had changed; it was sophisticated enough for a double hanging (conducted in private).

p.133 The West Division had been the early home of Mrs. Bertha Honore Palmer (wife of Potter Palmer) & remained a predominantly southern community. Originally Ashland Ave. had been known as Rouben St. but when "Key Rubs!" became popular as a term of ridicule, the residents of Rouben St. found themselves being called Rubs. This was intolerable and the property owners pushed to have the name changed to Ashland, after the country estate of Kentucky's Henry Clay. . . . Southern hospitality & customs continued to prevail along Ashland Ave. The houses were spacious and the grounds nearly the size of country farmyards. Most families kept their own house, cows & chickens & raised their vegetables in backyard gardens.
